

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to have their stations air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election without plans to air an anti-Bush documentary is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest and present balanced broadcasting. Please require Sinclair to air an anti-Bush documentary at the same time next week on the same day to fulfill their obligations to the public.